

Privacy policy

Dear Visitors, Haemorrhoid Clinic claims that personal data and information provided by users of www.haemorrhoidclinic.co.uk website are managed accordingly to valid EU legislative directions for data protection. Haemorrhoid Clinic does not have contractors for data processing. Personal data managed by ourselves are processes with own technical resources.

We also inform you about the fact that if you visit the www.haemorrhoidclinic.co.uk website, you provide your personal information voluntarily.

Your personal data can be managed by using the following way: you fill in registration sheets on our website, you need to give your name, contact information and email address because you would like to make personal contact with us and you aim to requisite one of our health-care services. Aim of the registration is providing availability and access to health-care services.

Our Website is created in a way to be able to fulfil the structural and content requirements pertaining to websites of health-care providers. During this process we made efforts in order that your personal data would be used only for requisition of our health-care services listed on our Website, or accordingly to your own provisions and the currently valid legislations which are the following: the 2016/679 EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Only our own colleagues have access to your data which were provided by you during visiting our Website who exclusively use them for their own tasks and for helping to accomplish those health-care services which you would like to requisite. In addition, these data are used to be able to answer your arising questions and notifications. Your data provided during the registration process are only used in ways which were specified and we do not unite them with database deriving from other sources.

Personal data provided during the registration are handled confidentially by Haemorrhoid Clinic those cannot be reached by unauthorised persons.

Haemorrhoid Clinic does not share your personal data – except for the exemptions specified in regulations on data protection – with third parties or unauthorized persons, while non-personal data can be used freely. Data provided during the registration process cannot be published by Haemorrhoid Clinic without your preliminary definite consent.

In accordance with the Privacy Act you have the right to request information on management of your personal data and you also have the right to actualize your data or ask for deleting them.

Haemorrhoid Clinic is not responsible for illegitimate use or any personal data provided during the registration process. Haemorrhoid Clinic claims the right to monitor personal information and if the user does not correct the wrongful, untrue or inaccurate data provided by them within a given period of time Haemorrhoid Clinic is allowed to delete the account of the person concerned.

If you have any further questions or observations regarding Data management you can contact our Data manager colleagues on the following email address: contact@haemorrhoidclinic.co.uk.